New General Manager at Top 10 Largest Security Service Provider

Universal Protection Service Introduces Greg Goree as General Manager

SANTA ANA, California (July 29, 2010) - Universal Protection Service, a division of Universal Services of America and one of the largest providers of security services in the U.S., is excited to introduce Greg Goree as General Manager responsible for overseeing their Dallas/Fort Worth operation. Goree will be responsible for management and expansion of Universal Protection Service's security solutions in the commercial real estate and corporate facility industries throughout Texas.

"We are very excited to have Greg join the Universal team," said Steve Claton, President of Universal Protection Service. "His key knowledge of the Texas marketplace and vast experience in managing and operations will undoubtedly help to lead our growth in the Dallas/Ft. Worth market."

Goree brings with him over 20 years of successful experience developing and overseeing service related organizations, and has broad strategic alliances throughout the Texas real estate industry. Having served as Allied Director to the Texas BOMA Board of Directors, Goree is also an active volunteer with IREM, IFMA and DFWI. In addition, Goree annually donates his time and expertise at charity auctions related to the Texas real estate industry. With a unique grasp of operations and as a published author of articles on effective marketing, Goree utilizes core development and platform skills to achieve the goals of his companies and clients.

"As a native Texan and business man, my goal beyond growth is to be the best service provider in Texas and the Southwest," said Greg Goree, General Manager of Universal Protection Service in Dallas/Fort Worth. "I'm thrilled to be extended this opportunity to work with a dynamic and growing company who has demonstrated exemplary service and compassion to its clients and employees."
