Universal Protection Service Transforms the World of Security with their Revolutionary Launch of PatrolLIVESM

Meet the Nation's Most Powerful Patrol Solution

SANTA ANA, Calif. (January 7, 2009) – Universal Protection Service is pleased to introduce PatrolLIVESM, their innovative technology for security patrol. Powered by dwellingLIVE, Universal's new security technology reports in real-time, so their clients can receive the most current and accurate data available regarding their property and security professionals. This break-through technology allows property managers to instantly monitor their security status effectively and hassle-free. By going wireless and taking the guesswork out of security patrol, Universal gives their clients a simple and cost-effective alternative to managing their security.

With PatrolLIVESM, clients will receive a superior security solution tailored specifically for their property:

- 1. Publish for each site:
 - ✓ Detailed instructions and updates
 - ✓ Emergency contacts
 - ✓ Checkpoints and requirements
- 2. Receive in real-time:
 - ✓ GPS location
 - ✓ Radio-frequency identification
 - ✓ Immediate synchronization
 - ✓ Text and voice notes
 - ✓ Photo capture
 - ✓ Incident forms
- 3. Green technology:
 - ✓ Completely paperless accessibility
 - ✓ Web-based information access

“Over the past year Universal Protection Service has worked passionately behind the scenes to develop this new technology that will forever change the security guard industry,” said Steve Jones, Co-CEO of Universal Services of America.
